3. Public Hearing Historic Eligible Classification

MOTION [IRA BENNETT], SECOND [BRENDA SHEARS] TO CONTINUE PUBLIC HEARING FOR THE HARRINGTON-BIRCHETT HOUSE TO THE 02/14/2013 MEETING. MOTION PASSES 4-0.

4. Discuss & Consider properties for HE classification on 02/14/2013

- Hallam presents slideshow and discussion of four residential properties in Farmer's Addition, one in Gage Addition, and one in Park Tract.
- Consideration is given to whether a property lacking sufficient integrity (the 1893 Spear House) for the National Register of Historic Places should be eligible for HE classification.
- Discussion on the extent of architectural modifications allowable to still be eligible for listing on the Tempe Historic Property Register
- 1893 Spear House may be the oldest surviving suburban property in Tempe
- Hallam presentation on history of the Spear House
- Nucci explanation of the purpose/intent of historic eligible classification: gives the city 30 days to react to a demolition permit, whereas listing on THPR gives 6 months.
- HE classification is undertaken in compliance with city ordinance requirements

5. Discuss & Consider 2013 Historic Preservation Conference in Mesa

- Linoff: The 2013 Arizona Historic Preservation Conference will be held in Mesa, June 12-14.
- Proposed mobile workshop at Hayden Flour Mill
- ASU architecture students have been involved in formulating adaptive reuse plan for Hayden Flour Mill silos

- Scheduling conflicts have been resolved
- Conference to be integrated as an “east valley experience”
- Conference planners aim to create hands-on experiences for attendees at mobile workshops
- Other workshops to include: Citrus Growers Building (Mesa); Buckhorn Baths (Mesa); Neon Main Street tour (Mesa); commercial historic district tour (downtown Mesa); lite-rail workshop
- Considering possible Saturday tours (to be complimentary) for additional sites
- Possible public policy plenary session with local Arizona lawmakers
- Patti Olson to lead ASU mobile session on sustainability in preservation

6. Discuss & Consider Tempe General Plan 2040 Update

- Hallam: review of 2030 Cultural Resource Areas complete; review of potential 2040 Cultural Resource Areas coming to completion; survey & inventory of 1958-1978 subdivisions complete.
- All 218 Tempe subdivisions falling within temporal criteria have been mapped on the GIS site and their plat maps linked to the site also. This is now accessible online.
- Alyssa and Nathan to begin looking at Tempe Daily News on microfilm at ASU library for additional research.
- Context statements to be drafted for subdivisions once this research is completed.
- HPO is strategizing possible approaches to cultural resource area amendments.
- Hallam: Two ways to look at cultural resource areas: first, if they can stand on their own merits architecturally; second, to conceptualize cultural resource areas as a preventative measure aimed at protecting areas under threat of future redevelopment.
- Dilemma: zoning never changes, but development standards do change; this causes intrusive infill construction within historic neighborhoods.
- For the cultural resource area amendments to be included in GP2040, they MUST clearly be a selective filter and therefore no more than 20-30 cultural resource areas should be chosen.
- Cultural resource areas only impact density, nothing else
- Commissioners to consider what objective they wish the cultural resource areas to accomplish; HPO will move forward with the selection process once it receives direction from commissioners.
- Commissioners to read historic preservation plan in the old GP2030 and suggest revisions for consideration at February HPC meeting.

7. Hayden Flour Mill + Silos Activities

- Vic Linoff discussion of planned mobile workshop at the flour mill in conjunction with Arizona Historic Preservation Conference (See Agenda Item #5 above)

- Matter: this will be her last meeting as a member of HPO staff.
